

Jacob Sheep Breeders Association Recommended Scorecard

	DESIRABLE ("HIGH")	ACCEPTABLE ("MEDIUM")	UNACCEPTABLE ("LOW")
Conformation (30%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Relatively small, fine-boned</li> <li>Straight back with rump sloping toward tail head</li> <li>Legs set square, no wool below the knee</li> <li>Head slender and triangular, no wool forward of horns in adults; small alert ears</li> <li>Brown, blue, or marbled eyes without evidence of split upper eyelid</li> <li>Tail docked, or reaching near hock</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Back not level over shoulders</li> <li>Square rump, not sloping</li> <li>Slightly cow-hocked</li> <li>Somewhat Roman-nosed</li> <li>Eyelid with minor evidence of a split upper eyelid that will not cause injury to the eye</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Rams over 180 lbs; ewes over 130 lbs.</li> <li>Very large, heavy boned animal</li> <li>Large, square-jawed head, pendulous ears</li> <li>Wool on legs or face (forward of horns in adults)</li> <li>Split eyelid deformity that causes injury or discomfort to the eye</li> <li>Unsound</li> </ul>
Fleece (30%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Medium, open, with soft springy handle</li> <li>Staple length of 3-7"</li> <li>With or without crimp, but uniform and desirable for handspinning</li> <li>Clean line between colored and white patches</li> <li>Minimal if any kemp; lambs may, however, have some loose fibers that are NOT kemp</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Finer, short, dense fleece</li> <li>Longer, coarser fleece that is more hairy in appearance</li> <li>Presence of some freckling obvious in the white wool</li> <li>Small amount of kemp</li> <li>Lacking in uniformity, or with excessive britch wool</li> <li>Significant "bleeding" between colored patches and white areas</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Very coarse fleeces grading 38.9 microns (40 Bradford count) or coarser</li> <li>Very fine fleeces grading 23.5 microns (60 Bradford count) or finer</li> <li>Double coating</li> <li>Short, brittle fleeces with heavy kemp</li> <li>Fleeces that shed</li> <li>Excessive quilted appearance</li> <li>Excessive mottling or freckling, with "salt and pepper" appearance</li> </ul>
Breed Characteristics (30%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Well-marked, a white sheep with black or lilac patches, neither too light nor too dark.</li> <li>Two large eye patches; pigmented nose (in adults) or muzzle patch present</li> <li>Legs white or with colored patches, but not all black; black or striped hooves</li> <li>With even number of strong, well-balanced and spaced horns</li> <li>In general appearance, fine-boned, somewhat primitive, and alert</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Minimal color on body, but with typical Jacob color pattern</li> <li>Missing or slipped eye patch, or having only one facial marking (one eye patch or muzzle patch)</li> <li>One to three dark colored legs</li> <li>Horns less well-spaced, may be partially fused or evenly fused at base in adult rams</li> <li>Slightly forward tipping horns that will not impair grazing or harm the animal</li> <li>Ewes with scurs in place of lower (secondary) horns</li> <li>Somewhat coarse in appearance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>More than 85% colored, or giving the appearance of a black animal with minimal white markings</li> <li>More than 85% white</li> <li>Having no facial patches</li> <li>All black legs</li> <li>Forward growing horns that harm the animal or impair the ability of the animal to graze</li> <li>Polled sheep</li> <li>Rams with scurs (except in addition to full horns)</li> <li>Ewes with scurs in place of top (primary) horns</li> <li>Very large and heavy boned</li> </ul>
Showmanship (10%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Reasonably clean and attractive but with minimal grooming of fleece</li> <li>Natural in appearance</li> <li>Well-conditioned, but not with expectation of same amount of cover as a meat breed</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some trimming and washing to present an attractive animal</li> <li>Adult ewes that have lambed in somewhat lower condition</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Animals recently sheared without sufficient wool for evaluation</li> <li>Excessively fitted</li> <li>Very poor condition</li> </ul>

Jacob Sheep Breeders Association

Recommended Scorecard

	DESIRABLE ("HIGH")	ACCEPTABLE ("MEDIUM")	UNACCEPTABLE ("LOW")
Conformation (30%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Relatively small, fine-boned</li> <li>• Straight back with rump sloping toward tail head</li> <li>• Legs set square, no wool below the knee</li> <li>• Head slender and triangular, no wool forward of horns in adults; small alert ears</li> <li>• Brown, blue, or marbled eyes without evidence of split upper eyelid</li> <li>• Tail docked, or reaching near hock</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Back not level over shoulders</li> <li>• Square rump, not sloping</li> <li>• Slightly cow-hocked</li> <li>• Somewhat Roman-nosed</li> <li>• Eyelid with minor evidence of a split upper eyelid that will not cause injury to the eye</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Rams over 180 lbs; ewes over 130 lbs.</li> <li>• Very large, heavy boned animal</li> <li>• Large, square-jawed head, pendulous ears</li> <li>• Wool on legs or face (forward of horns in adults)</li> <li>• Split eyelid deformity that causes injury or discomfort to the eye</li> <li>• Unsound</li> </ul>
Fleece (30%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Medium, open, with soft springy handle</li> <li>• Staple length of 3-7"</li> <li>• With or without crimp, but uniform and desirable for handspinning</li> <li>• Clean line between colored and white patches</li> <li>• Minimal if any kemp; lambs may, however, have some loose fibers that are NOT kemp</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Finer, short, dense fleece</li> <li>• Longer, coarser fleece that is more hairy in appearance</li> <li>• Presence of some freckling obvious in the white wool</li> <li>• Small amount of kemp</li> <li>• Lacking in uniformity, or with excessive britch wool</li> <li>• Significant "bleeding" between colored patches and white areas</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Very coarse fleeces grading 38.9 microns (40 Bradford count) or coarser</li> <li>• Very fine fleeces grading 23.5 microns (60 Bradford count) or finer</li> <li>• Double coating</li> <li>• Short, brittle fleeces with heavy kemp</li> <li>• Fleeces that shed</li> <li>• Excessive quilted appearance</li> <li>• Excessive mottling or freckling, with "salt and pepper" appearance</li> </ul>
Breed Characteristics (30%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Well-marked, a white sheep with black or lilac patches, neither too light nor too dark.</li> <li>• Two large eye patches; pigmented nose (in adults) or muzzle patch present</li> <li>• Legs white or with colored patches, but not all black; black or striped hooves</li> <li>• With even number of strong, well-balanced and spaced horns</li> <li>• In general appearance, fine-boned, somewhat primitive, and alert</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Minimal color on body, but with typical Jacob color pattern</li> <li>• Missing or slipped eye patch, or having only one facial marking (one eye patch or muzzle patch)</li> <li>• One to three dark colored legs</li> <li>• Horns less well-spaced, may be partially fused or evenly fused at base in adult rams</li> <li>• Slightly forward tipping horns that will not impair grazing or harm the animal</li> <li>• Ewes with scurs in place of lower (secondary) horns</li> <li>• Somewhat coarse in appearance</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• More than 85% colored, or giving the appearance of a black animal with minimal white markings</li> <li>• More than 85% white</li> <li>• Having no facial patches</li> <li>• All black legs</li> <li>• Forward growing horns that harm the animal or impair the ability of the animal to graze</li> <li>• Polled sheep</li> <li>• Rams with scurs (except in addition to full horns)</li> <li>• Ewes with scurs in place of top (primary) horns</li> <li>• Very large and heavy boned</li> </ul>
Showmanship (10%)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reasonably clean and attractive but with minimal grooming of fleece</li> <li>• Natural in appearance</li> <li>• Well-conditioned, but not with expectation of same amount of cover as a meat breed</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Some trimming and washing to present an attractive animal</li> <li>• Adult ewes that have lambed in somewhat lower condition</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Animals recently sheared without sufficient wool for evaluation</li> <li>• Excessively fitted</li> <li>• Very poor condition</li> </ul>